Funny tails

Sometimes sleeping on a bunny can bring much comfort to a whippet.

Race Summary Oct 5 and 6

The CU Racing Club held their first race meet the last race meet of 1991 with the help of Cheryl Curik and Larry Wittman. Ule and I want to thank everyone who made it to the meet and to Cheryl and Larry for their help and trophy donations.

Saturday, Oct 5: It was a cold, damp and cloudy day. Mary and Doug and the northern clans were waiting at the park for the roadies to set the stage. They were late. The rowdies from St Louis arrived and the races began. The first heat successful, the second heat, hipt, the box succumbed to the stress and strain of pounding dogs. One dog, Cookie, extruded herself from the box and had the bunny to herself. One other dog, left alone in the box, for endless seconds, in a rage, ripped muzzle to shreds thus easing his frustration. Cookie was reloaded, but the box failed again, yet released the dogs, who got their bunny but had to RERUN. Panic set into the roadies but a repair was managed. RERUN: Same results. Third heat, then lunch and the fourth heat.

The end of the day racing tolls: Charlie 2: Muzzles 0; Ule fined $500 for the twice-escaped Charlie. Saltwater continued his first place racing spree and Brandeis placed second in the race meet. Mighty Mite (might) managed to steal 1/2 point from Auburn, so as to prevent her from achieving her ARX this weekend, the little squirt!! Saltwater tried to convince Brandeis that he was more attractive than the bunny but again failed, (his self-confidence is probably shot).

Gene Jacobs judged conformation on Saturday and explained the various positive and negative aspects of the dogs in the conformation event which may prove useful to the participants in their future endeavors. LouAnn, after the placings were decided ran up with a gorgeous border collie, affectionately known as "Tag the disgusting", which she tried to enter as a long-haired whippet but Gene saw right through that ploy. Gene Jacobs having placed the four everyone thought he had decided on, began expounding on the virtues of Brandeis, who was fifth in line, when the handler, Claire Redell, said "Well, put me up then", and he did. The first place in conformation went to Pepperdine, the third first place conformation win for this young thing! End of Race Day 1

Oct 6: Colder, cloudier (??Have we made someone up high mad??). A late start again.

Pepperdine had her first experience running as an adult, and was chased by 2 hormone Harries who shall remain nameless, but they know who they are and should be ashamed of themselves for trying to go after jail bait. Saltwater was off sulking in his van and didn't run, probably due to being rebuffed the day before. Princeton came in first, with Brandeis second in the race competition.

Firewater place first in conformation as judged by Connie Brunkow.

Charlie managed to destroy two additional muzzles, for a total of 4 for the weekend. Our final alternative for future race meets will be shown in a future newsletter. Ule was fined an additional $1000 for the twice-escaped Charlie for the second day running.

Boasts and Brags

Connie and Ule and the gang went to a flyball tournament in Valparaiso on September 14. Charlie's team, Hit Squad A, came in second in their division, amazingly enough, and Charlie gained 80 points towards his flyball dog champion title, he needs 500, and has 371. Mr. Adams' team, Hit Squad B, had two new members, an 8 month old lab and a slightly neurotic border collie, both of whom decided they didn't want to run at various times, so we slunk out after every heat, but we did get the consolation prize, for winning only 1 race all day.
